

GLOBAL FREEDOM STRUGGLES FROM KASHMIR TO PALESTINE

MONDAY, MAY 9, 2022 | 4 - 5:30 PM PT

This virtual panel discusses the linked global struggles against colonial occupation in Palestine and Kashmir. Learn from our panel of experts about the ongoing struggles in these places, the global movement for decolonization and deoccupation, and the possibilities and limitations of the university as a site of solidarity.

PANELISTS:

May Shigenobu, Visiting Scholar, Department of Media and Cultural Studies, UC Riverside

Huma Dar, Adjunct Professor, Critical Studies, California College of the Arts

Taher Herzallah, Director, Outreach and Community Organizing, American Muslims for Palestine

MODERATOR:

Wendy Matsumura, Associate Professor, Department of History,
Director of Japanese Studies, UC San Diego

◀ Register at www.bit.ly/GlobalFreedomStruggles ▶

This event is co-sponsored by Asian American and Pacific Islander Studies, Japanese Studies, Visual Arts, and History at UC San Diego.